SCHOOL BOARD TO MEET FRIDAY

The School Board of Appomattox County will meet in regular session on Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the board room at the School Board Office.

R. E. Conservation District assists with seeding project at the new Appomattox High School. Jute netting is being installed as ditch liner.

State of Local Environment

A quiet revolution is going on throughout the Robert E. Lee Soil and Water Conservation District and the nation. Individuals and local governments are becoming more concerned and more active in environmental improvement programs. Degraded landscapes, polluted streams, and "garbage can air" in urban areas have stimulated many "new conservationists." Most of these newly concerned for the quality of the environment are not aware that conservation has been steadily progressing in this area for more than 35 years. The Robert E. Lee Soil and Water Conservation District has been the leader in the area in erosion control programs, however, most of these conservation programs have been directed toward rural land.

Excavation for urban development is a major cause of accelerated soil erosion and sediment (stream) pollution. An increasing amount of conservation effort will be directed toward urban conservation.

Most of the work of the Robert E. Lee Conservation District is a continuing process rather than a "one-shot affair." The following summarizes conservation accomplishments carried out in the R.E. Lee District during 1973:

Annual Red Cross Fund Drive Underway

The annual March Red Cross Fund Drive is now underway with a goal of $2,000.00 for the Appomattox County Chapter, according to Chapter Chairman, William A. Hunter.

One half of all funds collected by the Appomattox County Chapter are retained in the county for use by the local chapter, while the other half is remitted to the National Chapter to help finance its many services.

The major expense of the local chapter is the Red Cross Blood Program which is so vital to the citizens of our county. Blood collected by the Red Cross through volunteer donors is considered much safer than blood obtained from paid donors. Patients from Appomattox County may receive Red Cross blood in hospitals throughout this region with no cost to the patient for the blood itself.

Last year more than 3.5 million units of blood were collected by the Red Cross and provided for patients in nearly half of the nation's hospitals and more than 722,940 persons received Red Cross emergency assistance in hurricanes, tornadoes, foods and other calamities.

Chairman Hunter urges everyone to give generously when a volunteer calls on you in person or through the mail. Help us help those who are in need.

Supervisors To Share In Cost Of Operation Of Town Ballpark

Lynchburg, March 8, 1974 - Several Appomattox County residents have agreed to serve on the area -wide Sponsoring Committee in support of Lynchburg General Hospital's $2 million campaign to renovate and remodel overcrowded service departments. Among them are (left to right) Ralph King and William Jamerson shown here discussing the program with general Campaign Chairman, Roger W. Fauber.

The Board of Supervisors of Appomattox County meeting in afternoon session on Friday, March 8th, voted to share in the cost of operation and maintenance with the Town of Appomattox on the ballpark owned by the town.

T. E. Conner, member of the Town Council, appeared before the board to request that the county share in the cost of operation and maintenance of the town ballpark as it is used by residents of both the Town of Appomattox and the County of Appomattox. Conner told board members that last year $233.75 was spent by the town on the ballpark and that it is used primarily by the Appomattox County Youth Association with young people from the county as well as the town participating in the youth program and also the ACHS girls softball team uses the park for practice when the high school athletic field is not available.

Realizing that this is a public recreational facility, the board voted to make a donation for the 1974 year of one-half of the cost of operation and maintenance not to exceed $500.00 with the understanding that the facility be supervised by the Building and Grounds Committee of the Town of Appomattox.

The morning session of the board meeting was held in the Courthouse building for the annu Public Road Hearing. A report on the Road Hearing will be presented by the Virginia Department of Highways prior to the next board meeting.

Lloyd Walton, Division Superintendent of Appomattox County Schools, appeared before the board to report on the financial status of the school system and also reported on the progress on the new high school.

Walton also informed the Supervisors that local canneries need up-dating as some equipment has been in use for the past twenty-five years. The canneries cannot operate efficiently without good working equipment.

In other business, the board appointed Mrs. Annie Abbitt Kerr to serve as representative from Appomattox County on Central Virginia Planning District Commission Drug Abuse Control Advisory Committee.

Lynchburg General Hospital Announces C-A-R-E Program

Lynchburg General-Marshall Lodge Hospital, in its first community - wide appeal for funds in nearly 20 years, announced March 5th that it will seek contributions of $2,000,000 to remodel and renovate overcrowded patient-service departments.

In the same announcement, Robert S. Lockridge, president of the board of directors, reported that the Hospital "family" - directors, medical staff and personal - had already pledged $535,000, or 27% of the total goal and 19% over its own quota. The remainder is expected to come from business, industry, and from private citizens in the Greater Lynchburg area.

Mr. Lockridge also announced that Rodger W. Fauber, senior vice president of the Fidelity National Bank, had accepted the post of General Campaign Chairman.

Last year 545 Appomattox County residents were cared for at Lynchburg General Hospital, 5.2% of all patients treated there. In fact, the City of Lynchburg in 1972-73 accounted for less than half of the Hospital's patients, reflecting a steady gain in health care service to the Central Virginia area.

In a program called C-A-R-E, or Campaign for Additions, Renovations and Efficiency, the Hospital's laboratory and radiology departments will be expanded, substantially remodeled & the present surgical suite facilities enlarged, modernized, and consolidated in a single area. These changes will be made in accordance with recommendations of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

Details of the C-A-R-E program were revealed at a news conference at the Hospital

The victory ended a 19-0 season for the Raiderettes, coached by Mrs. Louise Martin and assisted by Miss Mary Libby Tolley.
